OFFENSE: Aggravated Sexual Abuse, in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 2241(a)(1) & 2

SENTENCE: Three hundred sixty-five (365) months' imprisonment to be followed by three (3) years of supervised release. A $100 special assessment fee was imposed as a matter of law. No special conditions of supervised release were imposed.

ADJUSTMENT TO SUPERVISION: On July 25, 2024, the defendant was released to begin supervised release. Prior to his release from incarceration, he proposed a residence with his sister and other family members in Chester, Virginia. An officer from United States Probation Office in Richmond investigated this address and denied it. The defendant is currently homeless. The probation office is funding a temporary placement at a hotel in Alexandria, Virginia, for the defendant. Additionally, funds for food and public transportation were also provided to the defendant.

RECOMMENDATION: Based on the defendant's offense of conviction and his personal history and characteristics, the following special conditions of supervised release appear appropriate. The recommendation for the below conditions considers the relevant policy and statutory provisions, and the proposed are the least restrictive conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health treatment, to include a psychosexual evaluation and sex offender treatment. The costs of these programs are to be paid by the defendant as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding sex offender/mental health treatment to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and authorize communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.
- 2) The defendant shall submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation officer to ensure compliance with the requirements of the defendant's supervision and/or treatment program. The costs of the testing are to be paid by the defendant, as directed by the probation officer.
- 3) Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, works, and attends school, according to federal and state law and as directed by the probation officer.
- 4) Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall submit their person, property, house, residence vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
- 5) At the direction of the probation office, the defendant shall disclose his criminal history to any employer and shall permit the probation office to verify his compliance with this requirement. The defendant's employment must be preapproved by the probation office.
